Cookie Dough

The nostalgic feeling of snacking on cookie dough in a ready-to-eat final product. Cookie dough is incredibly popular and forms a solid base for creativeness. Not only is it delicious to swirl through ice cream, but also to consume directly from the freezer or to use in the baking of products. By producing solely with ingredients that meet high food safety standards on modern lines, we can offer the best quality.

Our Cookie Dough can be recognised by their crunchy bite and can be called unique due to the complete range. We want to make sure that everyone can enjoy our delicious cookie dough. That's why we also respect the wishes of true ice cream lovers. Therefore we also produce vegan, organic and kosher cookie dough. Who dares to challenge us?
